GENERAL BASE INFORMATION

Base Chaplain Janet Irwin reported a “Support the Troops” club was formed on the Shenendahowa Middle School campuses. Over 50 students joined at the very first meeting. An unheard of amount of participation for a brand new club. After researching what the club’s project should be, it was learned that the VA has trouble filling and collecting “care packages” for deployed troops. They always seem to fall short. Particularly for contents and postage. The cost is between $13.00 and $20.00 per package. The Base Chaplain stated she was donating a beautiful U.S. Navy blanket to be raffled off at the Base Christmas Party. Proceeds would be immediately donated to the new Support our Troops Club.

It was learned too late before the meeting that Toys for Tots will no longer accept stuffed animals. Any stuffed animal donated for tonight’s Base Christmas Party will be given to the New York State Police for use in their patrol cruisers or youth programs.

CLOSING REMARKS
